

PAT ROUNDY

Biography

Pat Roundy is the current President of the Associated Ministries Board of Directors, having served on the Board since 2013. Pat worked at Pacific Lutheran University for more than 25 years. She directed an adult reentry program, served as an academic advisor, and completed her career as Director of Advising and Dean for Student Academic Success. Earlier in life, Pat served as an academic advisor and later as the Coordinator of the Women's Center at the University of Iowa. She earned a Ph.D. in French from the University of Pittsburgh.

Pat is an active member of Mason United Methodist Church and loves to serve there and in interfaith settings. Volunteering at Associated Ministries is a natural fit, and she is honored to serve alongside others who recognize and honor the potential and strengths of people. She believes that together, we can connect with all neighbors to transform our community.

Pat and her husband have lived in Tacoma for over 30 years. They are blessed by two terrific adult sons and a marvelous daughter-in-law.
